

GLENN A. TABOR III

ABOUT

Glenn A. Tabor III is a distinguished figure in the music industry, renowned for his expertise as a Grammy Award-winning producer and audio engineer. Based in Charlotte, North Carolina, he and his wife Susan are the driving force behind Gat3 Productions, a premier recording and video studio known for its high-quality productions and innovative techniques.

Born and raised with a deep passion for music, Glenn's early life was marked by an intense interest in sound and the mechanics behind music production. His career began after studying audio engineering, where he quickly distinguished himself with his keen ear and meticulous attention to detail.

Under his leadership, Gat3 Productions has become synonymous with excellence, attracting a roster of both established and emerging artists. The studio, equipped with state-of-the-art technology, is designed to meet the demands of various genres and styles, enabling Glenn to push the boundaries of traditional music production.

Glenn's work has earned him multiple accolades, including two Grammy Awards and numerous nominations, underscoring his impact on the music industry. His ability to blend technical skill with creative intuition has resulted in numerous multiplatinum records. As a producer, Glenn is known for his collaborative approach, working closely with artists to ensure that each project is tailored to their unique sound and vision.

Beyond the studio, Glenn is committed to mentoring the next generation of audio professionals at the Gat3 Recording School. He frequently conducts workshops and seminars, sharing his knowledge and experiences to inspire others.

Glenn continues to leave a significant mark on the music industry, celebrated not only for his achievements but also for his contribution to the artistic community in Charlotte and beyond.
